

Liana Logiurato (Milan, 1968)

She is a Board Director of Intesa Sanpaolo since 2022, as well as a member of the Board's Remuneration Committee and the Board's Committee for Transactions with Related Parties.

A graduate in Business Administration from Bocconi University in Milan, she earned an MBA and pursued further post-graduate studies at IMD (International Institute for Management Development) in Lausanne.

As a leading board adviser she worked on over $100bn of M&A, JV and licensing transactions as well as raised capital for over $20bn through IPO. She worked as a strategic consultant at Ernst & Young Ltd (Zürich), where she was Equity Partner and Head of Chemicals EMEIA, Strategy e Transactions (2018-2021); she was Global Head of M&A (2011-2017) and Deputy Head of M&A (2010-2011) at Syngenta AG (Basel); she was Executive Director (2001-2009) and Associate Director (1999-2001) at Nomura International plc (London); she was Associate Director (1998-1999) at UBS AG (London & Zürich).

In her professional career, she developed a strong track record in Corporate Defence, ESG and sustainability driven finance and in creating Long Term Stakeholder Value by identifying and originating strategic opportunities for industry transformation and growth in Asian, European and North/South American markets and in several sectors.

Resident in Switzerland, she lectures on M&A, governance and climate finance at IMD in Lausanne, IESE in Madrid and the University of Zürich.

July 2022