

INTESA SANPAOLO GROUP CONFIRMED IN THE DOW JONES SUSTAINABILITY INDICES

The Group's constant commitment to economic, social and environmental sustainability recognised at European and global level

Intesa Sanpaolo Group consolidates its position as one of the most active companies in the world in terms of economic, social and environmental sustainability.

Intesa Sanpaolo stock has in fact been confirmed for the sixth consecutive year in the Dow Jones Sustainability Index Europe and Dow Jones Sustainability Index World financial indices, managed by S&P Dow Jones Indices in collaboration with Robeco SAM, an investor specialised in sustainable investments.

Intesa Sanpaolo was awarded an overall score of 86 out of 100, compared with a sector average of 61. Performance in the environmental context was excellent, achieving a score of 95, with a sector average of 54.

The Dow Jones Sustainability Indices were launched in 1999 and monitor the economic, social and environmental performances of major companies on the world stock exchanges. Stocks to be included in the Dow Jones Sustainability Indices (DJSI) are selected on the basis of a strict annual evaluation conducted by Robeco SAM.

The indices follow the best-in-class approach, and include companies from 24 sectors with the highest performances relating to numerous sustainability indicators.

As regards the financial sector, in 2016 there were 27 banks listed in the Dow Jones Sustainability Index World and 10 in the Europe index.
